The Daylight Store

The Campaign is On.

Friday and Saturday, opening days, has started our fall and winter garment campaign. We are stumping the state to produce a lot of better selected jackets or furs for either ladies' or misses' wear. We have been twice in New York within four weeks looking after this garment business. If it is not right lay it to our poor judgment. If it appeals to you as a little in advance of ordinary lines tell your friends.

Garment Department.

The time has passed when you are asked to buy any one length garment. All lengths are shown. As to the length to be worn we will tell you frankly our views as we have gotten them from garment experts. It's our business to know about these things and you are welcome to our time and experience.

Fur Department.

We may talk a little too much about furs. It's natural that we should when we have under our hands the assortment that we have. Our profits are not fur profits, they are dry goods profits. This you will realize as soon as you have been over the lines.

Mrs. W. F. Shepard's Fall Millinery compliments her increasing business.
